REPORTS:

Treasurer: Margaret Taylor

- Announces current account balance.
- Announces this months deposits and expenses.

Fundraising: Christina Pawlowsky

- Cookie Dough fundraiser is over and dough has been distributed to students.
- Prizes for this fundraiser will be given out soon.
- There is Extra Cookie Dough available to purchase. Contact Christina for more info.
- December's KNO was a success. The students enjoyed the visit from Santa.
- Mrs. Lindley's class won a pizza party for having the most students at the skating party.
- The next skating party is January 8, 2008.

Market Day: Anna Wolf

- A Representative from Market Day is scheduled to attend the February PTG meeting to discuss products and give samples.
- A Market Day co-chair position is available.
- We may not participate in Market Day next year if the co-chair position is not soon filled.
- Contact Anna Wolf for more information.

Picnic Shelter: Margaret Taylor

- The cost of a picnic shelter is more expensive than anticipated due to the high cost of building materials.
- Members discuss making the shelter a long-term project which would allow more time to save the necessary funds.
- The Teachers also express an interest in having more playground equipment.
- After further discussion, the topic is tabled until the January meeting.

COSI: Kara Tegge

- Center of Science and Industry is scheduled to visit Bogan on February 14, 2008.
- The topic will be "Super Structures"
- Volunteers will be needed to assist with the hands-on activities
- Someone is needed to organize lunch for the COSI volunteers.
- Teachers are encouraged to ask parents to help with COSI in addition to their classroom Valentines Parties which will be held on the same day.
- Anyone needing more information or wishing to volunteer should contact Kara Tegge.

Hospitality: Carrie Ruoff
